

Mike Blue

Austin Office Managing Partner, Ernst & Young LLP

Michael Blue is the Managing Partner for the Austin office of Ernst & Young. Prior to assuming his roles in Austin, Michael was a Partner in the firm's Capital Markets Group in Paris, France and was responsible for European multinational companies going public in the US and other European multinationals registered on U.S. stock exchanges. He has also worked in San Jose, Frankfurt, Germany and Houston offices. Michael has over 28 years experience serving high growth, technology companies, from venture backed start-ups to multinational public and privately held companies with a focus on the semiconductor, software and biotechnology industries. He has extensive expertise in SEC reporting, corporate governance, mergers, acquisitions and divestitures, as well as international accounting and auditing, and strategic transactions. His clients have included National Instruments, Cree, Inc., Silicon Laboratories Corporation, Cirrus Logic, Luminex, GenSet, Whole Foods, Business Objects, Hytek Microsystems, ISSI, SAS, Topaz Semiconductor, and Xilinx.

Michael has served or currently serves on the Boards of Ballet Austin, The Greater Austin Chamber of Commerce, The University of Texas Accounting Department Advisory Board, The Texas Emerging Technology Fund Advisory Board, and The United Way Capital Area. In addition, he serves on the Audit Committee for KLRU Public Television.

Michael earned a BBA in Accounting in 1985 from The University of Texas at Austin.