

Gary Goolsby

Senior Managing Director, FTI Consulting

Gary Goolsby is a senior managing director in the FTI Consulting Forensic and Litigation Consulting practice and is based in Houston. Mr. Goolsby has 38 years of experience in accounting and auditing, risk management, resolving auditor malpractice allegations, investigations, internal controls and business processes, board of directors and regulatory interactions, executive management, expert witness testimony and case consultancy and technical presentations.

Mr. Goolsby has provided professional services to many industries including oil and gas exploration, development, services, refining; mining; financial institutions including brokerage, banks, savings and loans, mortgage banking, insurance; construction and real estate. In addition to serving clients in North America, Mr. Goolsby has experience on a global basis assisting with business and regulatory issues in Asia, Europe and Latin America. He has also served on various U.S. and global committees with representatives from other major professional services firms focusing on ethics, banking, financial reporting, auditing and risk management issues. Mr. Goolsby has made numerous presentations during his career covering a wide range of financial reporting, risk and investigation issues. He has also previously served as liaison to the Professional Liability Litigation and Energy Litigation Committees of the American Bar Association Section of Litigation.

Mr. Goolsby's experience includes involvement in the resolution of various business, accounting, auditing or disclosure issues relating to revenue recognition, going concern and liquidity, whistleblower allegations, alleged fraud, management integrity and credibility, fraudulent transfers, purchase accounting, retirement plans, financial instruments, stock options, loan loss reserves, income taxes, forecasts, bank asset/liability management, financial institution regulatory capital requirements, internal control weaknesses, SEC and financial institution regulatory filings, alleged illegal acts (including anti-corruption) and various types of contingencies. This experience was gained during many crisis periods including the banking, savings and loan and real estate difficulties in the late 1980s and early 1990s; oil and gas industry downturn during the mid 1980s; Asian real estate and financial crisis during the late 1990s; Mexico peso valuation issues during the mid 1990s; bull and dot com market during the late 1990s and recent financial crisis during the late 2000s. Mr. Goolsby has met frequently with audit committees, boards of directors and SEC and financial institution regulators discussing these various issues.

He has also provided expert testimony relating to fraudulent transfers and consultation on various cases including auditor professional malpractice.

Prior to joining FTI Consulting, Mr. Goolsby was a managing director for 5 years in the Disputes and Investigations practice of Navigant Consulting. Prior to Navigant Consulting, he served in executive level positions of Chief Financial Officer and President for a Houston financial services company. Mr. Goolsby's career also includes 28 years (18 as a partner) with Arthur Andersen as an audit and leadership partner.

National Association of Corporate Directors Texas TriCities Chapter | www.nacdttc.org

Reprint Permission Granted

Mr. Goolsby has a B.S. and M.B.A. from Louisiana Tech University and is a licensed CPA in Texas and Louisiana and Certified in Financial Forensics.