

Joseph S. McLauchlan

Tax Partner, KPMG LLP

Director, Junior Achievement, United Way

Joseph McLauchlan is a Federal Tax partner with KPMG's San Antonio office and has more than 14 years of experience. He is the office managing partner.

Joseph focuses on providing tax planning and compliance services to both public and private companies. He concentrates primarily in energy and oil field service company taxation, including corporate and partnership tax issues in the areas of federal, state, and international tax consultation and compliance.

Joseph advises on transactions and provides both tax planning and compliance in several industries. He has worked with auditors on FAS 109 for major international companies and has worked with clients in oil and gas production, renewables, refining, natural gas processing, chemicals, and transmission. He also has experience with foreign registrant adoption of SEC regulations, U.S. GAAP, Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404, and IFRS.

Joseph is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the San Antonio Chapter of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants. He has a BS degree from Texas A&M University at Kingsdale.

Other Activities

- Board member, Junior Achievement
- Has served as the San Antonio office campaign manager for the United Way Campaign
- Member of the firm's quality review process team