

Philip H. Moïse, B.A., J.D.

948 Oakdale Road

Atlanta, GA 30307

404-281-1496

pmoise@comcast.net

Career

- 1978-2007 Private practice, Atlanta, GA in major law firms; most recent, Partner and Co-Chair of Life Sciences at Sutherland Asbill & Brennan
- Corporate lawyer representing public and private technology companies, including company formation, public and private finance, securities law, US and international mergers and acquisitions, contracts, IP, licensing and technology transfer, contracts and employment law
- Corporate counsel and secretary for over 40 biotech and medical products companies
- 2007-2012 Immucor, Inc., Atlanta, GA - Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary
- Immucor, a leading provider of transfusion and transplantation diagnostic products worldwide, was a publicly-owned company until it was purchased in 2011 by TPG Capital, a private-equity company
- 2013-present Board member, Intelligent Systems Corporation, a publicly-owned technology company
Audit Committee; Chair, Compensation Committee
- 2014-present Guest lecturer in corporate governance, Georgia Institute of Technology, Scheller College of Business

Atlanta Nonprofit Work (past and present - partial)

- Emory University Advisor to VP of Research Administration concerning life sciences ventures
Advisor to Office of Technology Transfer concerning corporate formations
- Grady Hospital Board of Visitors
- Georgia BIO Founding member, Board of Directors and Executive Committee
Bio Industry Growth Award - 2008
- Alliance Theatre Board of Directors and Executive Committee
- Druid Hills Civic Assn Board of Directors

Education

- J.D. Duke University School of Law, 1974 (With Honors)
Duke Law Journal, Editorial Board
Chief Justice, Judicial Board
- B.A., History The Citadel, 1971 (With Honors)
Who's Who Honor Court

Military Service

Captain, U.S. Army JAG Corps (1974-1978)

Service in US and South Korea

Army Commendation Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster