

Kevin Lewis

Partner, Sidley Austin

KEVIN LEWIS regularly represents boards of directors and audit committees, major oil and gas exploration and production companies, oilfield service companies and other energy and infrastructure companies, major commercial airlines, investment banks, private equity funds and other public companies.

He has significant experience in capital markets financings, including IPOs and 144A transactions, equipment pass-through certificates and other asset securitizations. He also has extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions, and in structured financings, including aircraft sale-leaseback and other leveraged lease transactions.

Kevin's experience prior to joining Sidley includes the following representations.

- A substantial, closely held company in connection with the disposition of several business units
- Houston-based Continental Airlines in its 2010 merger with UAL Corp's United Airlines, a deal estimated to be worth more than $3.4 billion
- Several boards of directors in connection with investigations of corporate executives and failures of internal control over financial reporting
- Oil and gas exploration and production companies in numerous capital markets transactions

Kevin is widely recognized for his work. He has been included in The Best Lawyers in America in the areas of Corporate Law; International Trade and Finance Law; and Corporate Governance and Compliance Law (2006–2017). He is listed in The Legal 500 U.S. in the areas of Capital Markets: Equity Offerings (2012, 2013) and Capital Markets: Debt Offerings (2013 and 2014).
