

Tandra Jackson

Managing Partner, KPMG

---

Tandra is a principal in KPMG's Advisory Services Practice. She has over 21 years of professional work experience, including manufacturing accounting, IT internal and external Audit, IT governance and risk management, ERP implementation, controls integration, and process analysis and requirements definition. Her experience extends to a broad range of areas including risk/control assessment, IT framework adoption (ITIL, COBIT and ISO 27000), ERP security and controls implementation and assessment, ERP optimization, and project risk management. She also has experience assisting clients with process analysis and standardization. She was appointed KPMG's Houston Advisory Office Leader and Partner Champion for the Houston Diversity Program. Tandra now serves as the KPMG Houston Managing Partner.