

Milam Newby

Managing Partner, Vinson & Elkins - Austin

Milam is a corporate attorney who represents clients including start-ups, Fortune 500 companies, venture capital firms, and other private and public equity investors in private financing transactions, private and public securities offerings, mergers and acquisitions, management buyouts, debt financing, joint ventures and strategic alliances, and other business transactional matters.

Over the last 10 years, he has developed a particular emphasis on representing emerging companies and investors in private financing transactions—guiding them throughout the entire financing process, from startup to exit. Milam also advises public and private companies on issues related to organization, capital structure, stock incentives, governance, litigation risk management, securities law compliance, and disclosure. He has led transactions across a variety of industries, including technology, life sciences, energy, and financial services. Milam is the Managing Partner of Vinson & Elkins' Austin office.
