

BIOGRAPHY

DAVID NIKOLAI

Managing Director

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITIES

As the leader of Marsh's North Central Partnership, David's responsibilities include overall geographic management of a region covering Marsh's offices in Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Kansas City. His role entails leadership of both the client distribution model as well as their practice expertise. Prior to his current position, David led Marsh's Financial and Professional (FINPRO) Practice in the Midwest and was a member of FINPRO's U.S. Operating Board. David's responsibilities included coordinating client advisory, placement, and claims for over 40 different financial insurance products. His primary areas of expertise include directors and officers liability, fiduciary liability, professional liability, employment practices liability, fidelity bonds, and kidnap/ransom and extortion coverage.

EXPERIENCE

David joined Marsh in 1995. During his tenure at Marsh, he has worked with a variety of different organizations, including public, private and non-profit, as well as commercial and financial institutions. He has been involved in several new product initiatives in the insurance industry including the introduction of net secure, the evolution of employment practices liability, and malicious product tampering coverages.

Prior to joining Marsh, David worked for Chubb Insurance Company in various underwriting and management positions in Chubb's Executive Protection Practice in their St. Louis, Cincinnati, and Louisville offices from 1989 to 1995.

EDUCATION

- BA in marketing and finance, Saint Louis University
- Graduate of Washington University's Executive Program

BOARD AFFILIATIONS

- Member of the Board of Directors of Christ the King, Jesuit High School, Chicago
- Advisory Board Member, Horizons for Youth, Chicago
- Past Board Member for the Boy Scouts of America, Chicago