

Brian Fenske

Partner, Norton Rose Fulbright

Brian has a broad-based corporate and securities practice including extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions, IPOs and other public and private offerings of securities, and venture capital and private equity financings. He routinely counsels public companies and boards of directors on compliance with securities laws, corporate communications, disclosure issues and corporate governance. He also represents special committees of the board of directors in connection with transactions. His practice includes representation of clients in a broad range of industries including, energy, software, technology, telecom, healthcare and others. He recently completed IPOs for his clients RigNet (Telecom/oilfield services) and Rosetta Stone (education/software).

He believes in taking a hands-on, active role with his clients and giving them real world practical advice focused on risk management and cost effectiveness. Brian has been named one of the Best Lawyers in America each of the last five years. In 2011 he was recognized as one of the Best Lawyers in America in four separate categories: mergers & acquisitions, securities law, corporate law and technology law.
