Partner, Jones Day

Director, General Counsel Forum

Emily Leitch advises clients on capital markets transactions, corporate governance and securities law compliance matters, M&A, and financial restructurings. She has experience representing issuers and underwriters in a variety of public and private securities transactions and in transactions for master limited partnerships (MLPs) in addition to corporate issuers. Her experience includes initial public offerings, private investment in public equity transactions (PIPEs), and other public and private offerings of common and preferred equity securities, as well as high yield, investment-grade, and convertible debt securities. She also represents buyers and sellers in a broad range of M&A transactions, including stock and asset purchases and sales, joint ventures, and private equity investments.

Examples of Emily's experience prior to joining Jones Day in 2017 include representing: Parsley Energy in its acquisition of undeveloped acreage and production in the Permian Basin from Double Eagle Energy Permian and Noble Energy in its acquisition of Clayton Williams Energy.

Emily is a Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and a member of the General Counsel Forum, Houston Board, Special Events Committee (co-chair); the National Association of Corporate Directors, TriCities Chapter, Advisory Board; the State Bar of Texas; and the Houston Bar Association.
