

David Paris

Senior Vice President, USI Southwest

David is a Property and Casualty consultant in the risk management sector for USI Southwest. He is focused in delivering various risk solutions to companies ranging from upper-middle to large market size. Various risk solutions experience includes guaranteed cost risk transfer, large deductible and self-insured programs as well as other risk management mitigation and/or funding mechanisms. David also leads the USI Houston property and casualty team new business efforts and founded USI's proprietary CargoSafe and T3 Lloyds facilities.

Prior to joining the USI Southwest property and casualty team, David served primarily the professional community business segment developing Errors and Omissions (E&O) programs to address professional liability. In this capacity, he worked with doctors, lawyers, accounting firms and professional organizations. He has worked at USI for seventeen years.

David graduated from The University of Texas at Austin with a BS in management. He holds an environmental designation from the International Institute of Environmental Risk Management at The University of Houston and is a graduate of The Hartford School of Insurance. He and his wife, Joslyn, have one son, Jack, and one daughter, Evan.
