

Jeff Schiedemeyer joined Duff & Phelps in 1998. He is a managing director in the Chicago office and a senior member of the Transaction Opinions practice, which includes fairness and solvency opinions. Additionally, he is a member of the Transaction Opinions Senior Review Committee and leads the firm's international fairness and solvency opinion activities. Jeff has more than 20 years of corporate finance experience.

He specializes in providing corporate financial advisory services to clients on valuation matters related to fairness and solvency opinions, mergers and acquisitions and private debt and equity securities. His corporate transaction experience includes mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, recapitalizations and spin-offs.

Jeff holds an M.B.A. in finance and management strategy from Northwestern University's J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Management, where he graduated with distinction, and a B.B.A. in finance from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Jeff is a member of the National Association of Corporate Directors, where he serves on the Advisory Committee for the Chicago chapter. He is also a National Association of Corporate Directors Governance Fellow. He is a FINRA series 7 and series 63 registered representative.