

Jeff Brouillard

Senior and Regional Vice President | San Antonio Middle Market Banking,
Wells Fargo
Director, DoSeum, LiftFund and Alamo Heights Foundation

Jeff currently serves as Regional Vice President for Wells Fargo's San Antonio Middle Market Banking office, which covers San Antonio, New Braunfels, the Hill Country, Corpus Christi, Laredo, and the Rio Grande Valley. Jeff and his team manage a diverse client portfolio of over $1B in commitments, noting client relationships with some of the largest and most recognizable companies in San Antonio.

Jeff began his career with Wells Fargo as a summer intern in the San Antonio Middle Market Banking office in 2003. Upon graduating from Vanderbilt University in 2004, Jeff joined the Dallas Middle Market Banking Office, where he spent two years as a credit analyst. Following his two years in Dallas, Jeff spent 6 months in San Francisco under the Wells Fargo Credit Management Training Program, where he graduated at the top of his class. In March 2007, he re-joined the San Antonio office as a Relationship Manager, serving in that capacity until a promotion to Loan Team Lead in July 2016.

Jeff grew up in San Antonio and is a graduate of Alamo Heights High School. He is active in the community through his involvement with the San Antonio Children's Museum dba The DoSeum (board member), LiftFund (board member, treasurer), Alamo Heights School Foundation (finance committee), and Redeemer Presbyterian Church (deacon). He and his wife, Sara Goudge Brouillard, have three children: James (5), Joshua (4) and Cece (2).
