

Candace Cox

Chief Investment Officer, The Ministers and Missionaries Benefit Board

Candace Cox has 18 years of experience as a series mutual fund director and has served for six years on the board of the American Red Cross's national endowment. She also served for six years on the board of the American Heart Association and for five years on the board of the Financial Women's Association, including chairing the governance committee. Ms. Cox is currently Chief investment Officer of MMBB, a 100-year-old provider of retirement and other benefits. Previously she was President of Bell Atlantic Asset Management Company, overseeing $54 billion in assets. Earlier in her career she was Principal Investment Officer for the City of New York's retirement plans managing over $40 billion in assets. She also served on the advisory committee to the New York Stock Exchange between 1997 and 1998.