

Charles K. Re Corr

Senior Vice President – Investments, Merrill Lynch

Chuck Re Corr is a Senior Vice President Investments, and a discretionary Portfolio Manager with Merrill Lynch Private Client Group. He has been a Financial Advisor to individuals, and institutional clients for most of his forty years with Merrill Lynch. He has taught finance courses at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey and at North Carolina State University. In addition to his professional responsibilities, he has served on the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Securities Industry Association. He was formally the Chairman of the Board of the Institute for Certified Investment Management Consultants and on the National Board of Directors for the National Association of Corporate Directors. He is a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP), a Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA), a Certified Investment Management Consultant (CIMC), a Certified Professional Forecaster (CPF), and a member Arbitrator for FINRA Board of Arbitrators. He has written, been published, and developed software on the topic of quantifying investor risk tolerance.

He is the founder and President of the Research Triangle Chapter of the National Association of Corporate Directors (RTC-NACD), and has written articles for the NACD on The Value of a Board, Advisory Boards, and Board Decision-making process. He has co-authored the NACD book entitled “Director Decision Making: A Sensible Approach.”

Chuck can be contacted at charles_recorr@ml.com or by calling him at (919) 829-2012.

National Association of Corporate Directors Research Triangle Chapter

researchtriangle.nacdonline.org

Reprint Permission Granted