

Robert Rollo is a recently retired Partner of Heidrick and Struggles, a leading global executive search firm. During his 35 years as an executive search consultant Mr. Rollo was recognized by Business Week as one of the “World’s Most Influential Headhunters” having successfully recruited over 600 Board and ‘C’ level executives for a broad variety of global clients.

An honors graduate with a BS and MBA from the University of Southern California Mr. Rollo has served as a University Trustee and President of USC’s global Alumni Association. He is currently the Chairman of the Nominating and Governance Committee of PS Business Parks (PSB: NYSE), Trustee of the Park City Medical Center, and Chairman Emeritus of the Southern California Chapter of the NACD.

He is a former board member of Trust Services of America, the Huntington Hospital, the Southern California Healthcare System, and Mayfield Senior School. Mr. Rollo was a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy, receiving the Navy’s Outstanding Junior Officer Award in 1971.

Living in Park City, Utah he and his wife Kim have been married 44 years, have 4 grown children and 8 grandchildren.