

Minor Shaw

Current board positions: Director (Audit and Compensation Committee) - Piedmont Natural Gas (NYSE: PNY), Director and (Chair of Compensation Committee) and (member of Audit Committee) - BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina

Minor is President of Micco, LLC, a private investment company in Greenville, South Carolina. In addition, she serves on the Board of Trustees of the Belle Baruch Foundation, the Hollingsworth Funds and the Daniel-Mickel Foundation, and serves on the Investment Committee of each. She also serves as a trustee of the Columbia Riversource Funds and serves on the Governance and Investment Committees. She previously served as a trustee of the Columbia Nations Funds and the Bank of America Global Capital Management Funds where she chaired the Governance Committee of each. Minor also serves as Chair of the Greenville-Spartanburg Airport Commission and chairs the Duke Endowment. Minor was inducted into the South Carolina Business Hall of Fame in 2012 in recognition of her business achievements. Her community involvement has resulted in numerous state and local awards and honors, including the South Carolina Order of the Palmetto. Always thinking forward about connecting people and leveraging resources, Minor co-chaired Vision 2025, the long-range planning process designed to make Greenville an even better place to live and work in the coming years.