

Glenn Eisenberg

Glenn Eisenberg was appointed as Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer of LabCorp on June 16, 2014. With revenues of over $9 billion, LabCorp is a world-leading Life Sciences company, providing diagnostic and drug development services. From January 2002 to March 2014, he was employed by Timken Company as Executive Vice President – Finance & Administration. The Timken Company is an international manufacturer of highly engineered power transmission products. From January 1990 to May 2001, Mr. Eisenberg was employed by United Dominion Industries, an international manufacturer of proprietary engineered products, where his positions included President and Chief Operating Officer from December 1999 to May 2001 and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer from November 1995 to December 1999. Mr. Eisenberg received his Bachelors of Arts degree from Tulane University and his Master of Business Administration from Georgia State University. Mr. Eisenberg has been a director of Family Dollar Stores and Alpha Natural Resources.