

Lisa Hauser

Risk Assurance Senior Managing Director, PwC

Director – Youthlink, Minnesota Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors, NACD Minnesota Chapter

Lisa Hauser is a Senior Managing Director in PwC's Risk Assurance practice and is a member of the firm's Internal Audit and Governance Risk and Compliance team. She has over 30 years of experience working with manufacturing, utilities and retail companies in a variety of functions including; business and regulatory compliance assessments, internal controls evaluation and design, business continuity/disaster recovery and information technology risk management solutions. Lisa also has significant consulting experience in managing complex projects relating to Enterprise Risk Management. Prior to PwC, Lisa was a partner at KPMG and held a global senior executive role at Marsh and McLennan Cos.

She is a frequent speaker at industry events and conferences and has been published in several industry publications. Lisa has been honored as a "Top Women in Finance" by Finance and Commerce and was named "Women Business Leader" by the Business Journal.

Lisa serves on the Board of Directors of Youthlink, the Minneapolis Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors and the Minneapolis Chapter of the National Association of Corporate Directors

National Association of Corporate Directors Minnesota Chapter

minnesota.nacdonline.org

Reprint Permission Granted