

Dr. Bogart is currently is a director of Mohawk Industries (MHK); a NYSE listed floor covering firm; Michelman, Inc., a private specialty chemicals company; and ZBE Inc., a private digital printer firm. Last July, she completed her service as a director of Monolithic Power Systems (MPWR), a NASDAQ listed semiconductor firm. She was formerly a senior executive of Eastman Kodak Company. She is a National Association of Corporate Directors Board Leadership Fellow and was recognized in the 2016 "Directorship 100". She is a Trustee of Fielding Graduate University. Further, she is President of Smith Bogart Consulting and a lecturer in the University of California at Santa Barbara Technology Management Program. She has authored articles on board influence in sustainability and social responsibility.