

Sheila A. Stamps

Sheila Stamps is a finance executive with substantial experience working with both corporations and financial institutions. As a Corporate Board Member, Investment Manager, P&L leader, and Banker she has worked through various economic cycles and market dislocations, giving her expansive insight into risk and opportunities domestically and internationally.

Sheila is a Board member of CIT Group Inc. and CIT Bank, N.A. where she is a member of the Risk Management and Nominating and Governance Committees. And previously, Sheila served as Chair of the Regulatory Compliance Committee.

As a Commissioner on the Board of Directors of the New York State Insurance Fund, Sheila participates in the oversight of the largest worker's compensation insurance provider in the State. Here she is Chair of the Audit Committee and a member of the Business Operations Committee.

Sheila's senior level operating roles combine both private sector experience and public service.

She most recently served as Executive Vice President of DBI, LLC (a private mortgage company), and Director of Fixed Income and Cash Management for the New York State Common Retirement Fund, respectively. Sheila's leadership roles in the banking industry include Managing Director and Group Head, Financial Institutions at Bank of America (formerly, FleetBoston Financial) and, prior thereto, Managing Director, Asset Backed Securitization and Management Committee Member at Bank One London (now, JP Morgan).

She earned a MBA in Finance from the University of Chicago; a BS in Management Sciences from Duke University; and completed a Harvard University Fellowship at the Weatherhead Center for International Affairs. Sheila also serves on the faculty of the National Association of Corporate Directors Board Advisory Services, is a NACD Board Leadership Fellow, and a Director of NACD New York Chapter.
