

William Hernandez

William H. Hernandez is the retired Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President of PPG Industries, Inc. He currently serves on the boards of Albemarle Corporation as Chair of the Audit committee; BlackBox Corporation as Chair of the Nominating and Governance committee; Eastman Kodak as Chair of the Restructuring committee; USG Corporation as Chair of the Audit committee; and the Ligonier Camp and Conference Center. He previously served on the board of Pentair Corporation.

Mr. Hernandez was recognized by Institutional Investor Magazine for four years as Best CFO in the Chemical industry, and by Chemical Week magazine as CFO of the Year. He is a Certified Management Accountant, and member of the Institute of Management Accountants and the Financial Executives Institute. He has published in Management Accounting Magazine and The Harvard Business Review.

He received his Bachelor in Economics degree with majors in Finance and Accounting from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania, and his MBA degree from Harvard University with concentrations in Finance and Control.

Prior to PPG, Mr. Hernandez had finance, management, operational, or executive positions at the Ford Motor Company and BorgWarner Corporation.