

Larry Fritz

Larry Fritz currently serves as a Managing Director of Fennebresque & Co., an investment banking firm based in Charlotte, NC. Previously, he was the Managing Partner of the PricewaterhouseCoopers practice in South Carolina and the Carolinas Market Leader for the firm's Private Company Services practice until his retirement in 2011. Larry was commissioned in United States Marine Corps in 1973 where he served primarily as an artillery and armor officer for twenty years of combined active and reserve service, including a tour with the 2nd Marine Division in the Gulf War in 1990 and 1991 .

Larry currently is on the corporate boards of Evening Post Industries and Tindall Corporation. In addition, he serves on several civic and charitable boards in South Carolina, including the ETV Endowment of South Carolina, the South Carolina Historical Society and the Society of the Cincinnati of the State of South Carolina.

Larry received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, a Master of Accountancy and M.B.A. from the University of South Carolina.