

Dr. Pamela Davies

Dr. Pamela Davies serves as the 20th President of Queens University of Charlotte, having served in that role since 2002. During her tenure as President, Queens has experienced significant growth, doubling in enrollment and increasing its outstanding faculty. Dr. Davies has led the expansion of academic programs and major enhancements to campus facilities. U.S. News & World report now ranks Queens among the top 20 comprehensive universities in the region.

Dr. Davies currently serves on the boards of Sonoco Products, Inc., Carolinas HealthCare System, North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities, North Carolina Campus Compact, as well as on the national YMCA (Y-USA) board and the World Alliance of YMCAs. She is also a Life Trustee of the Charlotte Metro YMCA. She has served as President of the Association of Presbyterian Colleges and Universities and is an elder at Myers Park Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Davies holds a bachelor's from the University of Florida, a master's from Missouri State University and a Ph.D. in strategic planning and international business from the University of Tennessee.