

Evelyn D'An – Board Member, NACD Florida Chapter

Evelyn D'An is a Senior Executive, Corporate Director, Former Big 4 Audit Partner and Hispanic financial leader with broad based global financial experience in publicly traded companies and professional services with a Big 4 accounting firm. She has held numerous CFO positions during her career. Ms. D'An currently runs a consulting business where she primarily provides outsourced CFO services - working closely with founding CEOs and helping implement strong processes both on the front end of the business cycle as well as back office operations. She has helped companies implement incentive compensation plans aligned with overall company strategies. Her years of experience have enabled her to become an excellent sounding board for CEOs as they build strategies for future growth and sustainability.

Ms. D'An began her career with Ernst & Young and was named the first Hispanic female partner in the Southeast region. She was with Ernst & Young for 18 years, of which 8 years she was a partner in the audit practice and represented multiple public companies with wide ranging financial and audit challenges, including numerous IPOs.

Ms. D'An currently serves on the Board and Audit Committee of Summer Infant, a $200M NASDAQ registered global leader in premium infant and juvenile products. She was a Director of Hot Topic, the $800M NASDAQ registered teen specialty retailer, until its sale in 2013. She chaired the Audit Committee and the Nominating Committee, during which there was a successful transition of several board members, the Chairman of the Board, and succession of the Chief Executive Officer. In addition, she served as a member of the Board of Directors and Chair of the Audit Committee for Alico, Inc., the $200M NASDAQ registered land management company specializing in agricultural and property development operations.
