

Sherril Hudson – Chairman, NACD Florida Chapter

Sherrill W. Hudson held key executive and board-level positions at TECO Energy—as chairman and CEO from 2004 to 2010, executive chair from 2010 to 2012, and finally as chairman from 2013 until the company’s sale to Canadian energy firm Emera Inc. (TSX: EMA) in 2016 in a $10.4 billion deal. Under his leadership, TECO Energy achieved the 25th position out of the 338 S&P 500 companies included in Chief Executive Magazine’s 2010 Wealth-Creation Ranking. He also serves on the boards of CBIZ Inc., United Insurance Holdings Corp., and Lennar Corporation. He previously served on the board of Publix Super Markets, Inc. for 12 years.

Mr. Hudson retired from Deloitte & Touche LLP in August 2002 after 37 years of service. He spent 19 years in Miami as managing partner for its South Florida offices, which included oversight responsibilities for Deloitte's Florida and Puerto Rico offices for much of that time.

He is a member of the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants, which recognized him as the 2006 Outstanding CPA in Business and Industry. He received his bachelor's degree and graduated cum laude, valedictorian, from Ashland University in Ashland, Ohio.

Mr. Hudson currently serves on the boards of the Community Partnership for Homeless, Inc. (past chair, development committee, and treasurer) and Baptist Hospital of Miami, the largest hospital in the city. He is also past chair, Florida International University Foundation; past executive committee member, Miami Business Forum; past president and current member, Orange Bowl Committee; past president, Zoological Society of Florida; past chair and board of governors, Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce; past chair, Dade Community Foundation, Jackson Memorial Foundation, and American Cancer Society; co-chair, United Way Miami-Dade County Campaign (1996); and vice chairman, Goodwill Industries of Miami-Dade County.

During his time in the Tampa area, he chaired the 2007 United Way Tampa Bay Campaign, was a member and board member of the Florida Council of 100, and was chair of the Council of Governors of the Tampa Bay Partnership.
