

Rhonda Jordan
Retired Executive
Kraft Foods

Rhonda Jordan is a retired executive of Kraft Foods, where she held a variety of leadership roles during her 25-year career. She served as Operating Unit President of three different business divisions, including the U. S. Cheese, Grocery, and Frozen Pizza Divisions. She also served as President, Global Health & Wellness, and Sustainability, where she was responsible for development of Kraft's health and wellness and sustainability strategies and plans across the company. Rhonda was a member of Irene Rosenfeld's extended Kraft Executive Team.

Rhonda began her career at Kraft in the marketing function, which led to P&L responsibility for a diverse range of categories and businesses. In addition to her experience base in marketing and innovation, Rhonda's general management positions expanded her responsibilities to include functional leadership of division sales, finance, operations, research and development, logistics, and strategy groups. She developed global experience as President of Global Health & Wellness and Sustainability, and also in a prior position as Senior Vice President of Global Cheese and Dairy, with responsibility for developing a global strategy for Kraft's Cheese & Dairy business. Rhonda benefited from a broad range of roles throughout her career, leading both well-established and newly emerging businesses, while developing a track record for consistent delivery of results and development of high-performance teams.

Rhonda currently serves on the Board of Directors for Colfax Corporation (CFX), Ingredion Inc. (INGR), and Bush Brothers & Co. At Colfax she is Chairman of the Compensation Committee and a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. She is a member of the Ingredion Compensation Committee, and chairs the Compensation Committee for Bush Brothers & Co. Rhonda is also on the Chicago Chapter Board of the National Association for Corporate Directors (NACD), and she serves on the board of IES Abroad (International Education for Students Abroad), a non-profit organization developing global study abroad programs for a consortium of approximately 250 U.S. Colleges and Universities.

Rhonda holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Northwestern University and the J.L. Kellogg School of Management. She lives in Wilmette with her husband and two college-age sons.
